King and Queen Application

(Juniors, Seniors, and Tiny Tots)

Instructions: Read, complete, and sign the below required information. Submit via email, the full packet to youthdirector@aeaonms.org

This application is open to both male and female youth ages 4 to 17. By signing this page, you have read, understand and you will adhere to these requirements. Some of these terms may not apply to the tiny tots, therefore, parents complete the form on behalf of your little one.

Contestants must adhere to the following rules for consistency and civility in our pageant:

- Each contestant will be expected to uphold proper manners and conduct toward other contestants, pageant directors, and other committee representatives.
- Each contestant will be expected to submit the required information on or by the specified deadlines and attend the 3 mandatory workshops.
- Each contestant must agree to be photographed or video- taped for the purposes of pageant and the Imperial Youth Club promotions. Parents must submit a signed media release form.

I do affirm that I have read and agreed to the above expectations, and I agree to uphold these requirements as set by the Imperial Youth Department.
